

IT'S A CUT TO MEDICAID — NO MATTER WHAT YOU CALL IT

Republicans in Congress have proposed enormous cuts to Medicaid, which provides insurance to more than 70 million people—or 1 in 5 Americans. One way they plan to cut Medicaid is by increasing red tape and limiting eligibility under the false guise of “work requirements.” This proposal will cause people to lose their health care.

WHAT WOULD WORK REQUIREMENTS REALLY DO?

GROW
GOVERNMENT
& RED TAPE

NO SIGNIFICANT INCREASE IN EMPLOYMENT

INCREASED HOSPITALIZATIONS

Interruptions in Medicaid coverage were associated with a higher risk of hospitalization for conditions such as heart failure, diabetes, and chronic obstructive disorders.

HURT PEOPLE WITH DISABILITIES

People with disabilities will lose their health care.

WEST VIRGINIANS WILL LOSE THEIR HEALTH INSURANCE

POP QUIZ!

WHAT INCREASES EMPLOYMENT?

A. Access to Medicaid and Medicaid Expansion

B. “Work Requirements”

CORRECT ANSWER: Access to Medicaid increases employment. Workforce participation among parents with low incomes is greater in expansion states, and adults report greater employment when they have Medicaid.
